ABOUT OUR ICE CREAM...

Every drop of milk in our ice cream comes from the Jersey cows living at Crescent Farm in Walpole. Every batch is made from the milk gathered that morning. Our cream comes from farms in Vermont and New Hampshire; and whenever possible, our flavors are provided by local sources (such as our maple syrup, which is from Twin Spruce Farm in Walpole, and our rhubarb, which is from Dutton Farm in Newfane, VT). What ingredients we must import are bought from the finest sources we can find (vanilla from Tahiti, and ginger from Fiji, for example). We take great pride in crafting from scratch the most delicious, exquisitely flavored ice cream possible.

We are often asked what Super Premium actually means. Well, it's not a title we made up. There actually are several recognized grades of ice cream based upon the quality of the ingredients, the amount of overrun (air) in the ice cream, and the milk fat content in the final product. These graded categories range from "Economy" ice cream which only just meets the USDA's minimum standards for overrun and milk fat, to "Standard," then "Premium," and finally "Super Premium." Standard ice cream is 10% milk fat and generally 100% overrun. Our ice cream is over 16% milk fat with 24% overrun. In other words, our ice cream has 65% more cream and is 60% denser than regular ice cream. Super Premium is simply the creamiest ice cream you can buy!

OUR FLAVOR PROFILES...

We have so much fun creating our flavors (and naming them) that we tend to forget that others may have no idea what a flavor called "Triple Play" or "Chocolate Indulgence" may taste like.

Well, wonder no longer! Here's your cheat-sheet for some of the more mysterious ones:

AcapulcoCocoa: This is our take on Mexican Chocolate. It's our rich, dense chocolate with cayenne, chili, and hot cinnamon. It's seriously addictive.

Chocolate Indulgence: Our signature chocolate replete with organic Newman Os chocolate sandwich cookies.

Granny's Apple Pie: This one is killer. It's made with Granny Smith apples, and tastes JUST like a slice of apple pie a la mode. It even has pate brisee pie crust in it.

NuttyGoingNowhere: Our fans chose the flavor, and then voted on a name to humorously mark the frustration we all feel by the constraints of social distancing. It's our chocolate with bananas and walnuts.

Triple Play: Our chocolate (once again!) with chocolate chips, chocolate chip cookie dough, and Newman Os chocolate sandwich cookies.

Udder Joy: We thought the candy bar with coconut and almonds & coated in dark chocolate would make a great ice cream flavor --- we were right!

Wild Blue Lemon: This one is made with wild blueberries from Maine, and enhanced with a touch of lemon.

A note to those who require gluten-free food:

All our flavors are gluten-free EXCEPT the ones with cookies or pie crust in them. Stay away from Granny's Apple Pie, Cookies & Cream, Coffee & Cookies, Triple Play, Chocolate Indulgence, and Chocolate Chip Cookie Dough! We do, however, make our own GF cones....

We absolutely LOVE to have people try our ice cream. If you don't want to commit to a particular flavor without knowing how your tastebuds will react, PLEASE ask for a taste! Our servers will probably offer, but in case they forget, feel free to request! You don't have to limit yourself to just one taste either. Try a few! And if you STILL can't make up your mind, order a flight of 4, 5 or 6 mini scoop cones. It just doesn't get much better than that.

AND THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR COMING IN!
